The Exhibition will be open this summer until August 11th at Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències

Tickets on sale at www.harrypotterexhibition.es

Valencia, June 5th, 2019 – Due to the great success of the exhibition in Valencia, with more than 175,000 tickets sold since its opening on April 13th, Harry Potter: The Exhibition announces an extension through August 11th at the Museu de les Ciències at the stunning Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències complex.

Harry Potter fans will have an extra month to enjoy the exhibition at Valencia, the only stop in Spain this year.

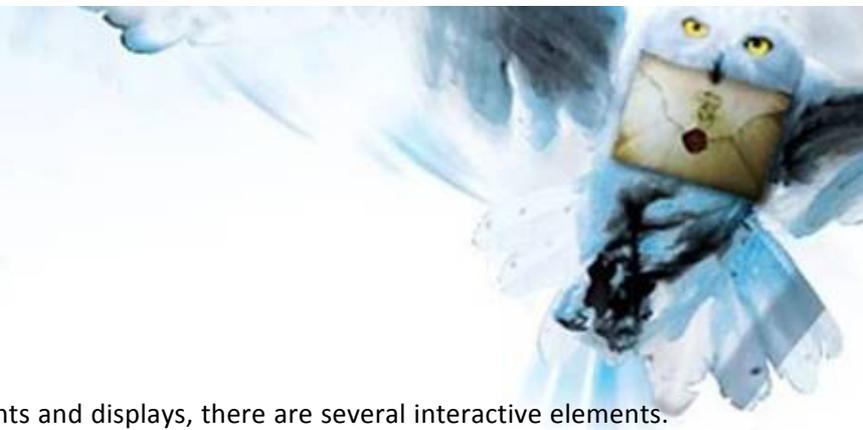

In partnership with Warner Bros. Consumer Products, GES Events created the 1,500-square-meter experiential exhibition, where visitors can enjoy dramatic displays inspired by the Hogwarts™ film sets and see the amazing craftsmanship behind authentic costumes, props and creatures from the films. Sold Out and Encore are partnering with GES to present the exhibition in Valencia.

Since its highly successful premiere at the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago in 2009, the exhibition has toured to cities around the world including Boston, Toronto, Seattle, New York, Sydney, Singapore, Tokyo, Edmonton, Sweden, Cologne, Paris, Shanghai, Brussels, Madrid, Utrecht, Milan and Potsdam, welcoming more than 5.4 million visitors.

From the moment guests enter Harry Potter: The Exhibition they are immediately drawn into the world of Harry Potter. Guests are greeted by an exhibit host who sorts several lucky fans into one of the Hogwarts™ houses and then leads them into the exhibition where their journey to favorite scenes from the Harry Potter films begins. The exhibition features settings from the films' most popular locations—including the Gryffindor™ common room and dormitory; classrooms like Potions and Herbology; and the Forbidden Forest—which are filled with thousands of authentic props, costumes, and creatures used in the filming of the iconic series.

THE EXHIBITION

In addition to the beautiful environments and displays, there are several interactive elements. Guests can enter the Quidditch™ area and toss a Quaffle ball, pull their own Mandrake in the Herbology classroom vignette, and even tour a re-creation of Hagrid's hut and sit in his giant-sized armchair.

Fans can also enjoy a little extra magic in Valencia with a new vignette from the Wizarding World that is displayed for the first time in Spain. This new vignette features props and costumes from the most recent entry to the Wizarding World, Fantastic Beasts: The Crimes of Grindelwald, the latest film in the Fantastic Beasts saga. Costumes on display include those worn by Eddie Redmayne, who plays Newt Scamander, as well as Jude Law who stars as Albus Dumbledore decades before becoming Headmaster of Hogwarts, and Johnny Depp, who plays the powerful dark wizard Gellert Grindelwald.

To ensure a pleasant experience for all visitors, timed-entry tickets are required. The last entry will be one hour and a half before the closing of the exhibition. Tickets to the exhibition are on sale at www.harrypotterexhibition.es.

An exclusive audio tour is also available, providing behind-the-scenes insight into the making of the Harry Potter films, with commentary from the producers, prop designers, costume designers and creature designers.

About Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències

The City of Arts and Sciences (in Valencian and officially Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències) is an architectural, cultural and entertainment complex in the city of Valencia (Spain). La Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències, a large complex that has been promoted by the Generalitat Valenciana, has become an international reference point and a symbol of the faith placed in cultural tourism and the dynamism with which the Region of Valencia introduces itself to the world. It is a cultural and leisure centre that surprises visitors both with its architecture and its amazing capacity for amusing, teaching, and exciting them, together with encouraging their participation.

Along an axis of just under two kilometres that was formerly the bed of the river Turia and with a surface of 350,000 square metres, the City of Arts and Sciences represents a large open space for relaxation based on a concept of cultural and intelligent leisure.

The significant part placed by architecture has been possible thanks to the outstanding work of two Spanish architects of international prestige: Santiago Calatrava with the Palau de les Arts (Opera House), Hemisfèric (Imax, Digital 3D and Planetarium), Museu de les Ciències (Science Museum), Umbracle (Promenade and Car Park), and, under construction, the Àgora, and Félix Candela with the striking roofs of the main buildings of the Oceanogràfic (Aquarium).
